Nov. 85

9<sup>o</sup> 823.

Yesterday arrived a Mail due from France.

THE Reader may remember the Account given in this, and the other publick Papers of October last, concerning the Deposition of the then Grand Vizier, and the tragical Death of his Kiaja. That Transaction is now related with very remarkable Circumstances which we knew not before, in a Letter written by a Turkish Officer in the Camp at Cartala, to the Marquis de Villeneuve, the French Ambassador at Constantinople, and by him just transmitted to his Court. An Extract of it follows.

Achmed Aga, the Grand Seignior's Master of the Horse, arrived in the Camp of Cartala the 6th of August last, and alighted at the Tent of the Janissary Aga. The Kiaja Bey, who was presently inform'd of it, went straight to the Grand Vizier, thinking to carry him the first News of it; but that Minister said to the Kiaja, You bring me no News; I know that Achmed Aga is arrived, and that his Errand concerns you more particularly than it does me: You are a Traitor: For 'tis you alone that have brought Mistrust to the Pass they are in at present, by your Misconduct. I should do you but Justice, if I ordered your Head to be cut off upon the Spot: But you may thank the Lord that I never delighted in Blood; for you deserve to have your's spilt by the Hands of the Hangman; and sooner or later that will certainly be your Fate. The Master of the Horse arriving that Instant, followed by the Janissary Aga, presented a Katchief, or Imperial Command, to the Grand Vizier, which import'd in Substance, That his Highness being satisfy'd with the Services of his Janissary Aga, was willing to reward him, by bestowing him with the Title of Bashaw of Three Tails, provided, nevertheless, that he should continue to perform the Functions of Aga of the Janissaries. The Grand Vizier after having kiss'd his Master's Order, and touch'd his Forehead with it, to show his Respect to it, array'd the Janissary Aga, in quality of Vizier, with Fur of Sable Marten, called Sersafer. This Ceremony, which was perform'd in Presence of all the Officers of the Army in the Imperial Pavilion, being ended, and the Janissary Aga ready to mount his Horse, all the Grandees, except the Vizier, form'd a Sort of Circle, in which a second Order from the Sultan was read, import'ing, That the Grand Seignior had deposed the Grand Vizier Mehemed Pacha (to whom he gave the Government of Negropont) and that in the Absence of the new Vizier he appointed the Aga of the Janissaries to perform the Functions of that important Office, in quality of Kaimacan. After the reading of the said Order, the Kapidjiler-Kiahiafi, by Proxy, dress'd the Janissary Aga in a second Fur of Samour, which is called the Fur of the Kaimacan; after which the new Bashaw, accompany'd by the Grandees, was conducted to his Tent in the Imperial Camp of the Janissaries. This Ceremony being ended, of which I was an Eye Witness, the Kiaja went out of the Grand Vizier's Tent to his own. We saw him pass along with his usual Attendance, but the Horrors of Death were printed in his Face; yet all the while People were so far from suspecting what was the Matter with him, that many thought the Grand Vizier was the only Person in Disgrace; and no sooner was the News of his being deposed divulg'd, but there was a terrible Confusion in the Camp. Every Man seized the best Horse he could find, without asking the Owner's Leave, and laid their Hands upon the Vizier's Effects, with an Intention, no doubt, to plunder and then to scamper; but good Care was immediately taken; for the Bridge was stopp'd up, and the Companies of the Fusiliers presently reduced them to Order. Mean time the Kiaja remained quiet in his Tent, and his Friends not only visited him as before, but 'twas he that in Appearance order'd all Things for the Grand Vizier's Departure; which confirm'd every Body in the Opinion that the Kiaja would continue in his Post; and there were some who went so far as to say, that the Bull or seal of the Empire was designed for him. Things rested on this Footing till 5 o'Clock, that the Grand Vizier was sent away. I saw him pass by: He was preceded by the chief Officers of the Porte, surrounded by his Guards and his Tchokadars, as when he was in Place, and he was followed by all his Household. The Vizier every now and then put his Handkerchief to his Eyes. 'Tis not my being deposed that makes me shed Tears, said he, 'tis my Master, and the Calamities of the Empire that I bewail. An Hour after he was gone, I went again to the Kiaja's Quarters. I was then told, that he was with the Janissary Aga, and the Tefterdar, in the Grand Vizier's Tent, busy in taking an Inventory of the Effects which that Minister left behind him. I went that Moment to the Tent of Ibrahim Aga, his Kiaja: He seem'd to me very gay and easy; from thence I returned to my Quarters, caused my Horse to be saddled, and went to the Spahi's Quarter to N—, where I was scarce arrived, but a Tchokadar of the Kiaja, came to tell me that his Master was just arrested, and carried to the Tent of the Muhfac Aga, together with Solyman Effendi, Kapikiahia of Jahia Pacha, and that the Kiaja conjur'd him, by the Ties of Friendship between them, to come and speak to him, having something of Importance to say to him: N— immediately took Horse, and went to speak with him in the Prison: The Kiaja said to him, I sent for you to acquaint you, that the Kaimacan has communicated an Order to me, whereby the Grand Seignior commands, that I be strangled. I beg of you, for God's Sake, to desire the Kaimacan to respite the Sentence of Death till the Arrival of the Grand Vizier; and if you can obtain no Favour for me, I intreat you to testify my Innocence, and to declare my last Will, which is, that I set all the Slaves of both Sexes who belonged to me, at Liberty; and I leave to every one of my Servants who are here, a Horse with the Furniture, and a Reward proportionable to the Rank which they held in my Service. After having spoke thus to N— and three other Persons that he had sent for on the same Occasion, those Gentlemen went to the Kaimacan, and fell at his Feet, with their humble Petition, in favour of the Kiaja; but the Orders of the Grand Seignior were too positive to admit of any Alteration, so that when the Hour was come prescrib'd in the Order, he was strangled in the Muhfac Aga's Tent; And his Corps being drawn to the Place called Leilekchadiry, where Executions of this Sort are performed, his Head was sever'd from his Body; and he was scalp'd, that is to say, his Skin was stripp'd off from his Head to his Neck; but the Beard was spared, which the Turks perform very dextrously, &c.

The Paris Letter dated on Wednesday last, mentions Advice from Genoa, that on the 19th ult. O. S. the French Fleet sail'd for Corsica from Antibes, consisting of 25 Vessels with 3 Regiments on board, and 2 Tartanes, one laden with Horses, and the other with Ammunition, consisting of 80 large Barrels of Powder, 30,000 lb. Weight of Ball, and 12 Pieces of Cannon. And that the Genoese Troops having attack'd an advanced Post of the Rebels in Corsica, the latter vigorously repulsed them, and took a Corsican Officer in the Genoese Service a Prisoner, whom they afterwards call into an Oven, where he was burnt alive.

The Cardinal de Fleury is said to have found great Benefit by taking the Waters of Nais in Langnedoc, recommended to him by his Physicians.

From the London Gazette.

Hague, Feb. 18. N. S. The States of the Province of Holland continue their Assembly, not having yet settled their Domestick Affairs, that relate to the Estimate of War for the current Year presented to them by the Council of State, to which they have not yet given their Consent. We have an Account from the Court of Petersburg, that the new Grand Vizier at Constantinople has been deposed, and the Kaimacan of that City put into his room, and that the latter is not judged equal to that Employment. Great Preparations of all Sorts are making by the Russians during the Winter, in order to an early Campaign in the Spring, unless the Turks prevent it by some Propositions of Peace that may be judged acceptable.

HOME PORTS.

LONDON.

Two anonymous Letters were sent to John Berington, Esq; in March 1736-7, threatening to burn his Houses, Barns and Stables, &c. If he did not lay certain Sums of Money in the Places therein describ'd; and another Letter, dated January 9, 1737, was sent by the Post, directed to Mr. Beninton, at his House at Beenham near Kiff in Berkshire, forthwith, threatening, that every thing he had should be burned, in case he did not get William Barnatt out of Gaol, who had been committed on Suspicion of being concerned in waiting and sending the Letters above-mentioned. And a Letter dated April 23, 1737, and directed to the Rev. Mr. Deen, living at Woolhamton, Berks, was found in Kiff-Green on the 25th of the said Month, threatening the Life of the said Mr. Deen, in case he did not send Forty Pounds to a Place therein described: His Majesty, for the better discovering the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letters, is pleas'd to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of them (except John Wingfield, now a Prisoner in Reading Gaol, who is suspected to have been concerned therein) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, Mr. Berington promises a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person making such Discovery.

Letters from Charles Town in South Carolina of the 22d of December, mention, that Lieutenant Governor Broughton was dead, and that Col. Bull, President of the Council, succeeded him. That all Things were very quiet, except the Apprehensions from the Spaniards, whose Gariboliat Augustine was greatly increased, and who continued preparing at the Havannah Embarkations for a secret Expedition, having fitted up the Prizes the Guard de Costas had taken from different Nations for Transports, and also had prepar'd several Flat-bottom Boats for landing of Men. The General Assembly had order'd Charles Town to be fortified. Some Families who had left Port Royal in the South of Carolina, on account of the Apprehensions from the Spaniards, were come up to Charles Town; and that they expected with Impatience the Troops from England. They further say, that they had heard from Georgia, that the Trustees Order had been published there, forbidding any more Provisions to be given to idle People, and thereupon several who would not work, had left that Colony.

Yesterday died Mrs. Avery, Wife to Dr. Benjamin Avery, at his House in Austin Fryars: She was Daughter to John Spence, Esq; of Lewes in Sussex, and married to her first Husband Mr. Hodges, an eminent Italian Merchant of this City, who died in 1715. She afterwards married Dr. Avery, and we hear that by her Death a considerable Estate comes to Mr. Hodges, a near Relation to her first Husband.

On Thursday last died at Knightsbridge Mr. John Shales, Master of John's Coffee-house in St. Martin's Lane, and Messenger to the Commissioners of Taxes, a Place worth 100 l. per Annum, and is in the Gift of the said Commissioners.

On Saturday last a Marriage was consummated between Edward Ratchiffe, Esq; an eminent and wealthy Turkey Merchant, and Miss Anderson, Daughter of Sir Stephen Anderson, Bart. a beautiful young Lady, and a Fortune of 20,000 l.

On Friday Morning last about two o'Clock, a Fire was discovered in the Cellar of a Colourman just without Aldgate, occasioned by a Candle being left by the Carelessness of a Servant, amongst Oils and other Combustibles in their way of Business, which greatly alarmed the whole Neighbourhood, but by the the timely Assistance of the Firemen and Neighbours, it was extinguished without doing much Damage.

On Saturday Morning about 2 o'Clock a Fire broke out in the two Pair of Stairs Room in the House of Mrs. Lloyd, at the Red Cow and Magpye the Corner of Cow-Lane, West Smithfield, but having plenty of Water and Assistance, prevented its spreading any further than that House, and some small Damage to two others adjoining; the Servant Maid and a Child both perished in the Flames; but the Body of the former has since been found, having lost her Limbs; and the Mistress was so much burnt that her Life is despaired of.

On Thursday last a young Lad unfortunately fell from a Lighter into the River at Smart's-Key, near Billingsgate, and was drowned.

On Saturday last the Corpse of the Rev. Mr. Husband, Vicar of Tottenham Church, was interr'd from his House in that Place, in the said Church.

We hear that William Noel, Esq; is rechosen Member for the Borough of Stamford, without Opposition.

This being the last Day of Term, several Persons who stands bound over for divers Misdemeanours, will appear on their Recognizances in the Court of King's Bench.

Last Week died at his Seat at Testwood near Rumsey in Hampshire, Richard Pawlet, Esq; by whose Death a considerable Estate falls to Captain Pawlet of the Guards.

On Thursday Night last died at her House in Bedford Row, Madam Phenix, a Widow Gentlewoman of a considerable Estate.

Last Saturday his Majesty, attended by the Right Honourable the Earls of Albemarle, Pembroke, Dunmore and Waldegrave, and the Honourable Colonel Paget, one of the Grooms of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting, went from St. James's to the Meuse at Charing Cross, and viewed all his Majesty's Saddle and Coach Horses.

Last Thursday Morning died at his House at Ware in Hertfordshire, William Dunbar, Esq; a Gentleman of an Estate of 2000 l. per Annum.

On Saturday Night Mary Allen, the Wife of Roger Allen (who was committed to Newgate by Col. De Veil, on the Riot Act some few Days ago) was herself committed by the same Gentlemen to Newgate for a Felony and Burglary, by breaking open the House of her Master, from whence she had been discharged a Day or two before, and was taken with the Goods upon her that she had stolen, to the Value of 6 or 7 Pounds.

Westminster, December 10. 1757.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are the roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Cancers, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be speak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, so remains in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAPOPORT's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
